James Mclean

Partner

James joined Underwood & Co in 2000. He is the partner in charge of our Private Client department and advises on estates, continuing trusts, wills, powers of attorney and Court of Protection work, with a particular emphasis on complex probate matters with an international element.

He acts as executor and trustee on numerous matters, and is often the lead contact for private clients and trustees requiring advice from other members of the firm in the areas of property sales, share disposals and commercial issues.

James assists clients often during the most difficult and challenging times of their lives, and provides practical and clear advice in a sensitive manner.
